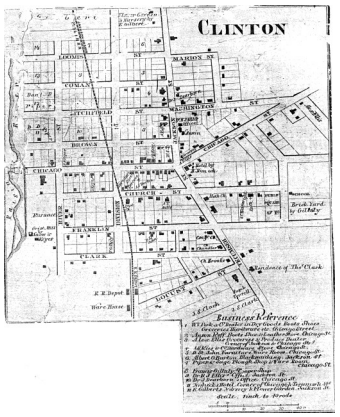
Join us in preserving the History of Clinton

We look to those who came before us, as they made it possible to be here today.

Historical Society of Clinton, Michigan

Historical Society of Clinton, Michigan



Founded in March 1974 by Lawrence Bailey, the Historical Society of Clinton coordinates the work of local historians and others interested in collecting and preserving historical records and encourages projects and celebrations honoring the history of the community.

Come visit our Archives on Friday afternoons at the Clinton Township Public Library from 3 to 5 p.m. or by appointment. Check our website calendar for dates and times as they may vary.

What our Volunteers Do

Society members work to present various programs throughout the year. In addition, many archive projects are undertaken, such as, clipping, cataloguing and filing newspaper articles under various subjects for easy location; maintaining an obituary collection for genealogical work; and digitizing photos, and our local newspaper for future research. They also serve on boards and committees and visit other museums and training. These are just a few of the ways you can help as a volunteer.

The Historical Society of Clinton, Michigan is a 501 (c)(3) IRS charitable organization and welcomes donations. EIN#38-238288
